COMMISSION OF INQUIRY HELD PRISONERS IN CHINA.

TAKEN BY CHINAMEN

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS, HOWEVER DOUBT THE STORY.

COMMANDER PRICE IS SUSTAINED

SUPPOSED TO KNOW WHAT HE IS DOING AT TAMATAVE.

Prospects for Getting Access to the Long-Suffering Walter are at Last Reported Good-Mr. Eustis' Instructions.

London, Aug. 23 .- A special despatch received here from Shanghai says that many Chinese converts were butchered when the American mission outside Foo Chow was attacked and the chapel and school were wrecked by an infurtated mob as exclusively cabled to the Associated Press from Hong Kong early during the morning of August 22.

Commander Newell, of the United States cruiser Diroit has gone to Cheng Tu to consult with Mr. J. C. Hixson, United States counsel at Foo Chow about the landing of marines for his protection and for the protection of the members of the commission investigating the massacres, as the latter are practically prisoners.

The despatch adds that the Chinese officials are jubilant a the defeat of the efforts of the American and Brithith officials to obtain an open inquiry into the massace. It is also said that the delay is giving the Chinese time to prepare a defense for the prisoners. Washington, Aug. 23.—It is said that Ku Cheng is meant whever Cheng Tu is used in the London dispatch as Cheng Tu is the scene of the June riots and 1,400 miles from Foo Chow. Naval officials though without informa-tion are inclined to discredit the in-formation in the dispatch. Acting Secretary Adoo said it was observed that dispatches of this character came by way of London, while another high naval officer said that there was evi-dent intention on the part of Great naval officer said that there was evident intention on the part of Great Britain in the whole Ku Cheng affair to get the United States government to pull the chestnuts out of the fire, and pointed to the fact that there did not reem to be any anxiety on the part of Great Britain to land troops or to be in undue haste to force an explanation. The navy department thought that if Commander Newell had gone on any such mission the department would Commander Newell had gone on any such mission the department would have been notified. It was also said that marines had scarcely ever landed at the request of any consul, especially when there is a minister in the country. However, should there be trouble of the kind indicated the United States has a strong force in Asiatic waters. Seven ships are available, some of them good cruisers, our fleet including the Baltimore (flagship) the Charleston, Detroit, Vorktown, Machias, Mono cracy and Concord. The last named four are not very formidable, though good fighting ships. The new cruiser, Olympia, will leave for the Asiatic station in a very short time as she is now being coaled at San Francisco.

The presumption among the officials at the Chinese legation is that the pro-tection to the commission referred to is from mob violence. The officials, however, express the opinion that ample protection will be afforded by the local authorities without the interven-tion of other governments. Besides t is not believed at the legation that the central government at Pekin would permit the landing of marines at the place where the investigation is to be onducted. There is, however, no news at the legation in regard to the state-ments in the dispatch and in fact there has been no information verifying the report of the appointment of a committee of investigation.

MAKES THE FRENCHMEN BOT. Commander Price is of the Opinion that Transtave is None of Theirs.

Weshington, Aug. 23.—Advices re-ceived from Paris yesterday to the ef-fect that Commander Price of the Uni-ted States cruiser, Castine, had refus-i to salute the French flag at Tamat-re, Madagascar, are confined in a dispatch to the navy department from the commander himself. His course is ap-proved by the department, Tamatave not being a French port. Frenchmen are said to be incensed at Commander

United States Consul Weller, who is at Tamatave is only acting consul in one sense, as the United States has never applied for nor received an exequatur for him. In advising the commander of the Castine not to recognize or salute the French flag the department presumes that Mr. Weller has taken the right course and knows what he is about, and will act upon that assumption until something to the contrary is learned. The effect this position of the consul and commander of the Castine may have upon the Waller claim is altogether speculative. If the French control is not recognized in the island United States Consul Weller, who is is altogether speculative. If the French control is not recognized in the island and in fact should be denied by the United States government it would define clearly the issue and make the claim of Waller indisputable from an American point of view but it is said that such a position by the United States is not necessary to the establishment of the Waller claim if Mr. Waller received his concession from a

Kansas City, Aug. 23.—Nearly one hundred men, most of whom are laborers, today enrolled themselves at the headquarters of the Cuban revolutionary recruiting station organized here yesterday. It is General Shelby's son, Orville, him-self a deputy, who is at the head of the movement.

the Church in France-New York, Aug. 23.—After an absence of fifteen week, Cardinal Gibbons returned from Europe today on the Campania. When the boarding officers reached the Campania, Cardinal Gibbons was seen on the upper deck talking to Bishop Foley of Detroit, ArchBishop Riordan of San Francisto and several other clergymen of the party. When seen by a represen-tative of the Associated Press Cardinal Gibbons said:

Gibbons said:
"My visit to Rome has no special singnificance, as it is customary for us to visit the Holy Father every eight or ten years, or perhaps, oftener, I had several audiences with Pope Leo. The last one on June 29. The Holy Father, although a little more stooped, looked better and stronger than when I saw him last eabout eight years ago. His faculties are unimaired and he is faculties are unimpaired and he is wonderfully bright. He takes a deep interest in America and frequently ex-pressed his admiration for our politi-cal institutions. He sent no special message to America through me nor presented any reason for doing so at the present time."

The cardinal said that he enjoyed his trip very much and that he had felt his health greatly benefitted by it. He left Rome on July 2 and traveled by slow stages through the Tyrol. MOST HORRIBLE CHAPTER IN WEST-ERN HISTORY WRITTEN.

Details are Given of the Awful Work o Rufus Buck Gang in the Indian Territory-Their Capture by the Most Carlous Mob that Ever Got Together on this Continent-Men Beg with Tears in Their Eyes for the Privilege of Lynching the Brutes-Authorities Refuse to Give Them Up.

Githrie, O. T., Aug. 23.-(Special.)-Particulars have reached here of the capture of the Rufus Buck gang and the attempt to lynch them. The story includes one of the most horrible, not the most horrible chapter yet written of western brigandage. This gang outraged four women, the whole gang taking part in the outrage of three of these. Miss Ayers, one of these, was outraged by the entire gang of brutes and is dead. The same treatment was given an Indian girl near Sapula, and she is dead, and Mrs. Hassen near Okmulgee died also. Mrs. Wilson, another woman, who was outraged by only one of the gang, will recover. Some Creek lighthorsemen and a posse of citizens surprised Rufus Buck and his outlaw band near Arkeckochee Thursday morning, and after an exchange of shots which only resulted exchange of shots which only resulted in the killing of three horses and the wounding of one bandit, the gang sur-rendered to the brave men who form-ed an impassable cordon around them. For several days hundreds of whites, Indians and negroes had scoured the country in small bands determined to run down the inhuman wretches, and it was the general determination to lynch them when caught. After the lynch them when caught. After the deputy marshals and lighthorsemen had taken the prisoners in custody, the crowd clamored to get them in its clutches, men begging the officers with tears in their eyes, to let them have them without a fight, which would cost the lives of good men. The guards were determined to hand their prisoners over to the law and proceeded to Okmulgee, the Creek capital, followed by a great mob. A gentleman in from Okmulgee says A gentleman in from Okmulgee says that it was a sight to see the fury of the crowd at Okmulgee when the prisoners came in. Hundreds of people wanted them, wanted to hang them, and were shooting their guns in the air at once. The prisoners were scared almost senseless. The mob, shooting and yelling, made a break to get them. The officers ran their team to an open gate in the wall of the capital yard. The prisoners were tied hand and foot and the officers in their hury threw them out of the wagon. They were too badly scared to see the open gate and tried to climb the wall to escape the crowd. They were rushed into the capital building and saved. The crowd was from all quarters, of all to the capital building and saved. The crowd was from all quarters, of all colors, of all kinds and continued to come in during the day. It looked like Falstaff's army. They were riding mules, horses and ponies, with saddle, bare-back, blind bridles and every kind of quick make-shift. They bore rifles, shotguns, pistols and clubs. It was an ominous crowd and had blood in its eve. The mob sentiment subsiderits was a common to the control of the control in its eye. The mob sentiment subsided somewhat the first day, but the second people came in from the country and quietly planned to mob them Friand quiety planned to mos them Fri-day night, but the officers got onto it and slipped the prisoners away. It was a determined crowd of fighters, who wanted them the second day, and the citizens of the town think that they would have taken them Friday night even if a fight had occurred. From Okmulgee the prisoners were hurried to Muskogee. The crowd gath authorities here. The detective force court house. It was a harmless looking crowd—not a gun or rope was in sight. After a bit of speech making from the court house steps, it marched back to Main street and then toward the jail. Just before reaching the jail it was met by Marshal Rutherford and Chief Deputy McDonald. The mob was halted and then it was the government's time at speech making. Mr. McDonald made an earnest talk which made the mob waver. Marshal Rutherford followed in an appeal to them to abide the law, and ordered them to abide the law to be pulled down and rebuilt. ered on Main street in expectancy, and | has people to arise against the prisoners, but the majesty of the law must be preserved at any cost, and the life of one of the citizens or one of the guards was worth the whole coop of prison-ers. When he referred to Judge Parers. When he feierred to Juage Fal-ker as a certain punisher of crime the crowd cheered. Before he had finished speaking the crowd began to break and drift away, and directly all were mov-ing back toward town.

Help in Getting it.

Denver, Aug. 22—A special to the News from Lander, Wyo., says: The Indian bureau and the war department have been discussing a plan to pacify the Indians. Agent Teter of the Fort Hall reservation reports that he is helpless in face of the Indians' absolutely disreganding all orders to remain within the borders of the reservation. It is proposed now to give the Indians a big hunt during September in Jackson's Hole and have the in Jackson's Hole and have the ps there to protect them from the les. This is to be done regardless of Wyoning law.

If Governor Richards follows out his idea of enforcing the laws equally against the whites and Indians, there will be a conflict of authority that will finally bring about a decision in the courts as to the rights of the Indians under the treaty of 1868.

The Indian trouble remains as it was when General Coppinger arrived in Jackson's Hole. This week a dozen sentlemen from here went fishing in the tributaries of the Gros Ventre. They were surprised by a party of Ban nock Indians who scrutinized each man carefully but finally said "your'e not the men we want. We are looking for the white men who killed the Indian." Further talk brought out the fact that they were determined to kill every man in Jackson's Hole who had anything to do with arresting. killing or wounding Indians. The Lemhis, the Utes, the Shoshones and the Arapahoes and army officers to a large extent are in sympathy with the Indians in this matter, and many of them admit that certain white men in Jackson's Hole are marked by the Indians for destruction.
